

Career Fair 2018 – Job Openings

Company Name      A. S. Watson Group

Company Website      <http://www.aswatson.com/>

Job title      Store Trainee Manager

Job nature      Retail Management

Job types      Graduate Positions

Work location      Hong Kong

Roles and responsibilities      The Store Trainee Manager Development Program is a 12-month comprehensive program including classroom training, on-job attachment and project management within the Sales Operations. The objective of the program is to provide learning opportunities for young talents to develop skills and professional expertise in retail industry, and to gain real life sales operations and managerial experience for further career development. Upon successful completion, candidates will be offered store management or equivalent positions within the Group. Along the career path, further career advancement and development opportunities in other key departments such as Sales Operations, Trading and Supply Chain will be available for candidates with outstanding performance.

Requirements / qualifications      Committed to a career in retail, willing to take up challenges and have the drive to succeed in dynamic retail business environment